Four kinds of visitor, four different reasons to be here

Same site, different clock. Each route below is built for how much time that visitor actually has and what they came to check.

ROUTE 01

TA / Recruiter: First-Pass Screen

A fast fit check, in under a minute: years of experience, seniority level, current availability, geography match, and whether the core competency is real Change Management or an adjacent title dressed up.

1. About / Profile headline
2. Resume snapshot
3. Contact

IN MY WORDS

"I bring 19 years of enterprise experience, 11 of them in core Change Management practice at Dell Technologies, delivering $6M+ in annual business value across 12,000 users. I can start immediately."

ROUTE 02

Hiring Manager: Deep Diligence

Proof this is a practitioner, not a theorist: whether the frameworks are grounded in real delivery or borrowed language, and what business impact actually followed.

1. About / Profile
2. Framework Library: start with TRANSFORM™ or OPERATE™
3. Resume, cross-checked

IN MY WORDS

"I built these frameworks on two foundations: lived delivery across 19 years of enterprise experience spanning 50+ partner and Dell sites and 10 organizations, and deep research into the industries and open challenges around Change and Transformation. I didn't write them to sound impressive. I wrote them because they can bring real, positive impact to the individuals and organizations navigating that change."

ROUTE 03

Industry Peer: LinkedIn Connection

Intellectual credibility and a reason to keep following: something original to say about Change Management, Digital Transformation, or AI Operationalization, worth engaging with.

1. Latest blog post
2. Framework Library
3. About

IN MY WORDS

"I publish original practitioner thinking on Change Management, Digital Transformation, and AI Operationalization as I develop it. Start with the latest post, and if it resonates, let's talk."

ROUTE 04

Personal / Network Contact

Reassurance and current status: without asking directly, confirmation that Selva is doing well and genuinely back in the market, plus how they can help.

1. About: current headline
2. Career Journey
3. Contact: how to help

IN MY WORDS

"I prioritized my health, then used the time to build something real. I'm fully back and actively looking. Reach out, I'd love to catch up."

IF YOU ONLY TAKE ONE THING AWAY

"I bring 19 years of enterprise Change and Transformation leadership, including 11 years of core Change Management practice at Dell Technologies across EMEA, APAC, and the Americas, delivering $6M+ in annual business value across 12,000 users and 50+ sites. That experience is now distilled into 8 published practitioner frameworks. I'm available to start immediately."
